6. Training

Seminars are regularly held near Ulm, South Germany, for the different winLIFE modules. A summary of the courses can be found under

<http://www.stz-verkehr.com/seminare.html>

In-house training at your own company is also possible. In this case, please contact us for an individual offer.

Guarantee

The following services are free of charge for the first six months after purchase: Telephone support for the installation of programs. This is necessary in particular for the network version. If there are any program faults, these will be remedied free of charge.

Terms of the Service Contract

The service contract contains the following points:

User Advice

By telephone, email or at our office, (as requested by the customer) with a maximum of 10 hours (total annual sum of support). Hours resulting from faults in the winLIFE program will not be counted. This also applies to support included in the guarantee which will be carried out free of charge.

Updates

Program updates will be supplied free of charge.

A winLIFE-licence can be purchased under the following conditions. These must be accepted by the user.

Software Licence Contract

This is a legally binding contract between you, the end user, and a company recognised by German law.

If you open the packet of disks or install the program, you are entering into an agreement to be bound by the terms and conditions of this contract. If you do not agree with the terms and conditions of the contract, please return the disks immediately to the place where you purchased them, along with all other documents. You will be reimbursed.

Granting of a Licence

This licence agreement (licence) gives you the right to use a copy of a software product acquired with a licence (software) on one single computer. This is on the condition that the software is only used on one computer at any particular time. If you have purchased multiple licences for the software, you may simultaneously use only as many copies as you have licences.

The software is "in use" in the computer if it is loaded onto the RAM and therefore available for use.

Copyright

The software winLIFE is the property of Steinbeis Transfer Center New Technologies in Traffic Engineering (STZ) and is protected from being copied by copyright laws, international contracts and other national legal regulations. Permission is given to make one copy for safety reasons. Permission is not given to copy either the accompanying documents or manuals.

If an update is installed by the purchaser, the old version is to be deleted completely.

Further Restrictions

It is not permitted to rent or lend out the software, but the rights of the licence contract may be transferred permanently to a third party. In this case all copies of the software and all the accompanying documents are to be transferred and the recipient must agree with all the terms and conditions of the contract. Reverse engineering, decompiling and dismantling the software is not permitted. A transfer must cover the last updated version with all updates and all earlier versions.

Legal Liability

STZ will not accept any responsibility for the accuracy of the results produced by the winLIFE program, the manual, the given material data, etc.

As 180 days from the date of delivery, STZ warrants that the software will principally work according to the enclosed product documentation. Being the manufacturer of the product, STZ will accept responsibility for that.

Customer's Rights

The entire warranty of STZ and the customer's sole right to make a claim for damages consist in the following alternatives, whereby the way of settlement is up to STZ:

Reimbursement of the licence fee paid to STZ or repair or replacement of the faulty software.

This limited liability will not come into effect, if the failure of the software is caused by an accident, by misuse or by inadequate application.

If the software is replaced, STZ shall only be liable for the remaining time of the initial period of warranty.

No Other Warranty

Any other warranty of STZ relating to the software, the enclosed manuals or written documentation as well as relating software products shall be excluded.

No Warranty for Resultant Damages

STZ shall not be liable to pay compensation for any damages (including, without limitation, damages resulting from loss of profits, failures, loss of business information or data or from any other financial losses). STZ shall not even be liable to pay compensation, if STZ has been informed that such damage might come into existence.

In any case, the liability of STZ is restricted to the amount which has actually been paid to STZ for that product.

This limitation of liability shall not apply to damages caused by STZ owing to wilful default or gross negligence. Furthermore claims based on inalienable legal rules and regulations related to product liability shall remain unaffected.
